

Defeated at Waterloo
on 18 June 1815.
Exiled to the remote Atlantic island of St Helena.
Napoleon died in 1821 at 52yrs.

John Thomas was 16yrs.

“I have inspired multitudes with such an enthusiastic devotion that they would have died for me.....but to do this it was necessary that I should be visibly present with the electric influence of my looks, my words, of my voice .

When I saw men and spoke to them, I lighted up a flame of self devotion in their hearts.....

Christ alone has succeeded in so raising the mind of man toward the unseen, that it becomes insensible to the barriers of time and space. Across a chasm of eighteen hundred years, Jesus Christ makes a demand which is beyond all others to satisfy.

He asks for the human heart”

Tomb of Cyrus

“O man, whoever you are and wherever you come from, for I know you will come, I am Cyrus who won the Persians their empire. Do not therefore grudge me this little earth that covers my body.”

- Cyrus and his immortals are history! – Dust! - Never to live again!
- Christ’s immortals are future! – Will come from dust and live forever!

And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.

- ❑ The frog used in only two contexts. Rev.16 & Exod.8
- ❑ The frog was an Egyptian deity – a pagan god. (Idolatry)
Exodus 8:8,14 "...I will give you liberty" "...and the land stank..."

- Words based on the practice of the Temple guards on duty every night in the Temple in the times of Jesus.
- 240 Levites and 30 Priests were appointed to guard the 24 gates of God's house. They were to be awake and alert to the entry of the unclean or forbidden.

¹⁵Behold, I come as a thief.

Blessed is he that watcheth,
and keepeth his garments,
lest he walk naked,
and they see his shame.

- When they went on duty at dusk they were given a distinguishing garment of white linen.
- They watched from dusk til dawn without relief.

Euphrates Dried Up

www.ChristadelphianVideo.org

"The water of the Great River Euphrates, in like manner, represents the military power of the Ottoman empire; which is dissipated by a process of evaporation, a drying up; a gradual exhaustion, so as at last to leave the channel of the river in the heart of the Great City, empty; and devoid of all power to impede, or interfere with operations developing in the southeastern recesses of the empire. ...The military and political power of the Ottoman empire was to be dried up by the wrath of the Sixth Vial, that the way for a certain class of kings might be cleared of all hindrances and impediments to their enterprize in its beginning."
